Book offers 200 reasons to say no to Clinton

by Telegraph Herald Staff

Veteran political insider and feature writer Bradley O'Leary has assembled a collection of public opinion quotes in his newest book "Top 200 Reasons Not to Vote for Bill Clinton."

These quotes, from people in public life to top political leaders (including a quote from Bill Clinton himself), will change the way many Americans view our current president.

Just in time for the presidential election, "Top 200 Reasons Not to Vote for Bill Clinton" will provide readers with amazingly astute observations on why the First Family should be the former family.

Look for the 112-page book ($5.95 paperback) at bookstores.
